

Plaza™ Confidential Document Container

Protect Your Reputation... Safeguard Information.

The credibility of your facility could rest on the way confidential documents are collected and stored until shredded. Proper disposal is particularly important in healthcare facilities, law firms, commercial businesses, or financial institutions where careless disposal of personal information may be costly to your company.

With an upscale appearance and large capacity, Rubbermaid's Plaza™ Confidential Document Container is designed to blend with any office décor. The full-size, front-opening door is ergonomically designed to ease servicing while the key lock and full length hinges help reduce threat of entry.

Let Rubbermaid's Plaza™ Confidential Document Container help protect your business and its interests. Keep your sensitive material out of sight and its security out of mind.

Hinged door offers full access for removing large bags of paper.

Container provides convenient, secure collection of confidential records.

Recessed paper slot helps prevent unauthorized entry.

Side-mounted, hinged door offers full access for "no lift" refuse removal.

Optional imprint clearly designates use.

Bolt-down feature provides additional security.

Disc tumbler lock latch keeps contents secure; keyed lock standard, padlockable option.

Heavy-duty plastic construction with textured finish resists dents and scratches.
